TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In our second reading today we hear St. Paul speaking passionately to the community of Philippi about the importance of their unity saying, “complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing”. St. Paul witnessed the way a lack of unity, signs of divisiveness or a lack of harmony erodes the spirit of a community. The antidote he offers to such negativity is “Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves.” In other words, empty yourself of selfishness and take on the thinking and attitude of Christ Jesus.

Thank you Sister FLORIANE

DECREE OF APPOINTMENT

Dear Sr. Nkensi Assonfack Ntougkem Floriane,

Given the pastoral and community needs of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Therese of the Child Jesus of Buea, resident on St. Croix Island, and by virtue of the authority vested in me as Bishop of the Diocese of Saint Thomas in the US Virgin Islands, I do hereby issue the following decree:

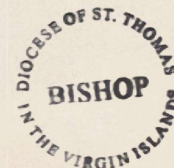

You are hereby released from your assignment at St. Joseph High School and appointed to Holy Cross Parish and St. Mary's School, Christiansted, St. Croix, effective Monday, September 28, 2026. This appointment is made in support of the mission entrusted to your congregation there, and to foster the necessary collaboration with your fellow Sisters currently serving at Holy Cross Parish and St. Mary's School.

We commend you, Sr. Nkensi Assonfack Ntougkem Floriane, to the Lord for a fruitful ministry in your new assignment.

Given at the Catholic Chancery, St. Thomas, USVI, this 18th day of September, 2026.

The Saints of the Week

St. Michael: Scripture presents Michael as the great defender of God's people and the leader of the heavenly hosts. His name means “Who is like God?” and reminds us of God's supreme power.

St. Gabriel: Gabriel is God's messenger, appearing especially in the Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary, when he announced that she would become the Mother of the Savior. His name means “God is my strength.”

St. Raphael: Raphael appears in the Book of Tobit as a companion and healer, guiding Tobias and bringing healing to his family. His name means “God heals.”

St. Jerome (c. 347–420) was a priest, a biblical scholar, and a Doctor of the Church. He devoted his life to studying Sacred Scripture. His translation of the Bible into Latin, the Vulgate, profoundly shaped the Church's biblical tradition. He is remembered for his scholarship, prayer, and passionate love for God's Word.

St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus (1873–1897) - is known as the “Little Flower.” St. Thérèse entered the Carmelite convent at fifteen. She taught her “little way” of holiness: trusting God completely and doing ordinary things with extraordinary love. She was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1997.

The Holy Guardian Angels - The Church teaches that God gives each person a guardian angel to protect and guide them toward salvation. Angels remind us of God's loving care and invite us to remain attentive to His presence.

Catholic Questions Answered

Why do Catholics pray for the dead?

Catholics pray for the dead because we believe that death does not end our relationship with those who have gone before us in faith. Through Baptism, Christians become members of the one Body of Christ, and this communion continues beyond death. The Church calls this the Communion of Saints: the spiritual bond that unites the faithful on earth, the souls being purified, and the saints in heaven.

The practice of praying for the dead comes from both Scripture and ancient Christian tradition. In the Old Testament, we read that Judas Maccabeus offered prayers and sacrifices for fallen soldiers, believing in the resurrection of the dead (2 Mac 12:44-46). Saint Paul also speaks of the possibility of being saved "through fire" (1 Cor 3:15), which the Church understands as a reference to purification after death.

The Church teaches that some souls die in God's friendship but still need purification before entering the fullness of heaven. This purification is called Purgatory. It is not a second chance after death or a punishment like hell, but a loving preparation to see God face to face.

When we pray for the dead, we express love for our departed brothers and sisters and entrust them to God's mercy. These prayers also remind us to live our own lives with faith and hope, looking forward to the day when all God's children will be united with Him forever.

MINISTRY RETREAT & SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

On Saturday, October 3, we invite all our Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Ushers, Choir Members, Catechists, and Volunteers to join us for a very important Ministry Retreat. This will be a beautiful opportunity to pause, pray, reflect, and renew our hearts as we grow in our love for God and in our commitment to serving one another and our parish community.

As part of the retreat, we will also renew our Protecting God's Children training. Please remember that, every five years, ministers and volunteers are required to renew their Safe Environment training, Background Check, and Code of Conduct. These requirements help all of us work together to ensure that our parish remains a safe environment for children and vulnerable persons.

Please obtain your Background Check at the Police Station in the days leading up to October 3. When you bring your completed Background Check to the Parish Office, you may also register for the training. Please note that this training is MANDATORY. Anyone who has not completed the required renewal will not be able to continue serving in their ministry.

 17 Saturday, October 3 -  8:30 a.m. – approximately 1:00 p.m. -  Hospitality Lounge -  A light meal will be provided.

Thank you for your generous service to our parish and for helping us maintain a safe and welcoming environment for everyone.

RETIRO PARA LOS MINISTERIOS Y CAPACITACIÓN DE AMBIENTE SEGURO

El sábado 3 de octubre, invitamos a todos nuestros Ministros Extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión, Lectores, Ujieres, miembros del Coro, Catequistas y voluntarios a participar en un importante Retiro para los Ministerios. Será una hermosa oportunidad para hacer una pausa, orar, reflexionar y renovar nuestros corazones, mientras crecemos en nuestro amor a Dios y en nuestro compromiso de servir a los demás y a nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Como parte del retiro, también renovaremos nuestra capacitación de Protecting God's Children (Protegiendo a los Hijos de Dios). Recordemos que cada cinco años es necesario renovar la capacitación de Ambiente Seguro, la verificación de antecedentes y el Código de Conducta. Estos requisitos nos ayudan a trabajar juntos para garantizar que nuestra parroquia sea un ambiente seguro para los niños y las personas vulnerables.

Por favor, durante los días previos al 3 de octubre, acuda a la Estación de Policía para obtener su verificación de antecedentes. Cuando entregue la verificación de antecedentes en la Oficina Parroquial, también podrá registrarse para la capacitación. Les recordamos que esta capacitación es OBLIGATORIA. Quienes no hayan completado la renovación de los requisitos correspondientes no podrán continuar sirviendo en su ministerio.

 17 Sábado, 3 de octubre -  8:30 am – aproximadamente 1:00 pm -  Salón de Hospitalidad (Hospitality Lounge)

Gracias por su generoso servicio a nuestra parroquia y por ayudarnos a mantener un ambiente seguro, acogedor y lleno de fe para todos.

Preguntas Católicas Respondidas

¿Por qué los católicos rezan por los difuntos?

Los católicos rezamos por los difuntos porque creemos que la muerte no destruye la relación que existe entre los miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo. Por medio del Bautismo, todos los cristianos formamos parte de la familia de Dios, y esta comunión continúa más allá de la muerte. La Iglesia llama a esta realidad la Comunión de los Santos, la unión espiritual entre los fieles que todavía peregrinan en la tierra, las almas que se purifican y los santos que ya contemplan a Dios en el cielo.

La práctica de orar por los muertos tiene fundamento en la Sagrada Escritura y en la tradición cristiana desde los primeros siglos. En el Antiguo Testamento encontramos que Judas Macabeo ofreció oraciones y sacrificios por los soldados fallecidos, confiando en la resurrección futura (2 Mac 12,44-46). San Pablo también habla de una salvación "como quien pasa por el fuego" (1 Co 3,15), una imagen que la Iglesia relaciona con la purificación después de la muerte.

La Iglesia enseña que algunas personas pueden morir en amistad con Dios, pero todavía necesitan ser purificadas antes de entrar plenamente en la gloria del cielo. Esta purificación se llama Purgatorio. No es una segunda oportunidad ni un castigo semejante al infierno, sino una preparación llena de amor para encontrarse con Dios. Al rezar por los difuntos demostramos nuestro amor por ellos y los confiamos a la misericordia del Señor. También recordamos nuestra propia esperanza: que un día todos los hijos de Dios estaremos unidos para siempre con Él.

27 DE SEPTIEMBRE VIGÉSIMO SEXTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En la segunda lectura de hoy escuchamos a san Pablo hablar apasionadamente a la comunidad de Filipos sobre la importancia de la unidad, diciendo: «Lleven a plenitud mi alegría, teniendo un mismo sentir, un mismo amor, unidos en un mismo corazón y con un mismo pensamiento». San Pablo había experimentado cómo la falta de unidad, las divisiones y la falta de armonía pueden debilitar y erosionar el espíritu de una comunidad. El antídoto que propone ante esta negatividad es: «No hagan nada por egoísmo o por vanagloria; más bien, con humildad, consideren a los demás como superiores a ustedes mismos». En otras palabras, debemos vaciarnos del egoísmo y asumir los mismos sentimientos, pensamientos y actitudes de Cristo Jesús.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl around the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

HURRICANE SEASON PRAYER

God, our Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Keep us safe from the danger of hurricanes, floods, earthquakes, natural disasters and all acts of terrorism. May we be secure in your protection and always feel the presence of your love as you turn our fears into praise of your goodness. Bless our families and bring peace to all nations. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

ORACIÓN A SAN MIGUEL ARCÁNGEL

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Reprímelo Dios, pedimos suplicantes, y tú, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, arroja al infierno con el divino poder, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

ORACIÓN EN TEMPORADA DE HURACANES

Padre, todos los elementos de la naturaleza obedecen a tu mandato. Libranos de los peligros de huracanes, inundaciones, terremotos, desastres naturales y de todos los actos de terrorismo. Que nos sintamos seguros en tu protección y que siempre sintamos la presencia de tu amor. Cambia nuestros miedos en alabanzas a tu bondad. Bendice a nuestras familias y trae la paz a todas las naciones. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.
