The Saints of the Week

Saint Simon the Zealot was one of the twelve Apostles chosen by Jesus. He is called the Zealot, possibly referring to his fervent devotion to Jewish law and his people. After encountering Christ, Simon dedicated his life to proclaiming the Gospel and spreading the message of salvation. According to tradition, he preached in various regions, including Egypt and Persia, where he eventually suffered martyrdom. He is often depicted holding a saw or other instruments associated with his martyrdom.

Saint Jude Thaddeus was also one of the twelve Apostles and is traditionally identified as the author of the Letter of Jude in the New Testament. During the Last Supper, he asked Jesus why He would reveal Himself to the disciples but not to the world. Jude devoted himself to evangelization, preaching the Gospel in Mesopotamia and Persia, according to tradition. He is honored as the patron saint of desperate and seemingly hopeless cases, a devotion that reflects the enduring hope Christians find in God's mercy. He is often depicted holding an image of Christ and a club, associated with his martyrdom.

OCTOBER 25
THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus doesn't mince words in today's gospel. The whole law and the prophets depend on two commandments - to love God with your whole being and to love your neighbor as yourself. Jesus didn't give any wiggle room then or now as to the importance of these commandments. Each of us strives to follow the commandments that Christ presents to us, yet if we are honest, we must admit that there are times we fall short. Developing the practice of a daily prayerful examen can help us recognize the ways God comes to us/speaks to us in the many people and events of our day. This honest acknowledgement of the times we were or were not responsive to God's initiation can help us live these commandments more intentionally.

Catholic Questions Answered

Why do Catholics pray?

Catholics pray because prayer is the relationship of God's children with their loving Father. Prayer is not simply asking God for favors; it is a personal encounter with Him in which we express our love, gratitude, trust, and dependence. Through prayer, we open our hearts to God and allow Him to transform us according to His will.

Jesus Himself taught His disciples to pray. When they asked Him how to pray, He gave them the words of the Our Father, teaching them to approach God with confidence and trust (Mt 6:9–13). Throughout His earthly life, Jesus prayed constantly, especially before important moments of His mission. His example shows that prayer is essential for every Christian.

The Church teaches that prayer can take many forms: blessing and adoration, petition, intercession, thanksgiving, and praise. We pray individually in the silence of our hearts, and we pray together as the Church, especially in the celebration of the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours.

Prayer does not change God's love for us, because God already loves us perfectly. Instead, prayer changes us by making our hearts more open to His grace. Through prayer, we grow in faith, receive strength during difficulties, and learn to recognize God's presence in our daily lives. Prayer is not an obligation that burdens us; it is the privilege of speaking with the God who desires communion with us.

25 DE OCTUBRE
TRIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesús habla con claridad en el Evangelio de hoy. Toda la Ley y los Profetas se fundamentan en dos mandamientos: amar a Dios con todo nuestro ser y amar al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Jesús no deja lugar a dudas, ni entonces ni ahora, sobre la importancia de estos mandamientos.
Cada uno de nosotros se esfuerza por cumplir los mandamientos que Cristo nos presenta; sin embargo, si somos sinceros, debemos reconocer que hay momentos en los que fallamos. Practicar diariamente un examen de conciencia en oración puede ayudarnos a reconocer cómo Dios se hace presente y nos habla a través de las personas y los acontecimientos de nuestra vida cotidiana.
Reconocer honestamente las ocasiones en que respondimos o no a la iniciativa de Dios puede ayudarnos a vivir estos mandamientos con mayor conciencia, amor e intención.

Preguntas Católicas Respondidas

¿Por qué los católicos rezan?

Los católicos rezamos porque la oración es la relación de los hijos de Dios con su Padre amoroso. La oración no consiste solamente en pedir cosas a Dios; es un encuentro personal con Él donde expresamos nuestro amor, gratitud, confianza y necesidad de su gracia. Al orar abrimos nuestro corazón a Dios y permitimos que Él transforme nuestra vida según su voluntad.

Jesús mismo enseñó a sus discípulos a orar. Cuando ellos le pidieron que les enseñara, les entregó la oración del Padre Nuestro, enseñándoles a acercarse a Dios con confianza filial (Mt 6,9–13). Durante su vida terrena, Jesús dedicaba tiempo a la oración, especialmente antes de momentos importantes de su misión. Su ejemplo nos muestra que la oración es esencial para todo cristiano.

La Iglesia enseña que existen diferentes formas de oración: bendición y adoración, petición, intercesión, acción de gracias y alabanza. Rezamos en la intimidad de nuestro corazón y también como comunidad, especialmente en la celebración de la Eucaristía y en la Liturgia de las Horas. La oración no cambia el amor de Dios hacia nosotros, porque Él ya nos ama perfectamente. La oración nos cambia a nosotros: abre nuestro corazón a su gracia, fortalece nuestra fe y nos ayuda a descubrir su presencia en nuestra vida diaria.

Un cristiano que ora desarrolla una amistad más profunda con Cristo y se vuelve más capaz de amar a los demás. La oración no es una carga, sino el privilegio de conversar con el Dios que desea vivir en comunión con nosotros.

MISA DEL DÍA DE LOS FIELES DIFUNTOS

Lunes 2 de noviembre, a las 5:00 pm, en la iglesia. Se invita a todos los feligreses a reunirse en oración para recordar a nuestros seres queridos fallecidos y encomendar sus almas a la misericordia amorosa de Dios.

Unámonos en oración por todos los fieles difuntos.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl around the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

HURRICANE SEASON PRAYER

God, our Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Keep us safe from the danger of hurricanes, floods, earthquakes, natural disasters and all acts of terrorism. May we be secure in your protection and always feel the presence of your love as you turn our fears into praise of your goodness. Bless our families and bring peace to all nations. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

ORACIÓN A SAN MIGUEL ARCÁNGEL

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Reprímele Dios, pedimos suplicantes, y tú, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, arroja al infierno con el divino poder, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

ORACIÓN EN TEMPORADA DE HURACANES

Padre, todos los elementos de la naturaleza obedecen a tu mandato. Líbranos de los peligros de huracanes, inundaciones, terremotos, desastres naturales y de todos los actos de terrorismo. Que nos sintamos seguros en tu protección y que siempre sintamos la presencia de tu amor. Cambia nuestros miedos en alabanzas a tu bondad. Bendice a nuestras familias y trae la paz a todas las naciones. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.
