The Saints of the Week

Saint Leo the Great (c. 400–461) was born in Tuscany, Italy, and became Pope in 440. A gifted theologian and courageous leader, he defended the Church's teachings on Christ's divine and human natures. He also worked to protect Rome from invasions and promote peace. He was proclaimed a Doctor of the Church.

Saint Martin of Tours (c. 316–397) was born in Pannonia, in present-day Hungary, and served as a Roman soldier before becoming a Christian. Famous for sharing his cloak with a freezing beggar, he later became Bishop of Tours, France. He dedicated his life to prayer, evangelization, and serving the poor.

Saint Josaphat (1580–1623) was born in present-day Ukraine and became a monk and Archbishop of Polotsk. He worked tirelessly for Christian unity between Catholics and Orthodox Christians. His efforts to restore unity brought opposition, and he was martyred in 1623.

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850–1917) was born in Italy and founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Sent to the United States, she dedicated herself to serving Italian immigrants, establishing schools, hospitals, and orphanages. She became the first United States citizen to be canonized, in 1946, and is the patron saint of immigrants.

NOVEMBER 8
THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel reminds us that opportunities can be lost when we neglect what matters most. The foolish virgins were not excluded because they were bad, but because they were unprepared when the moment of encounter arrived. There is a challenge here for all of us. The demands and pressures of daily life easily consume our attention, leaving little room for prayer, reflection, and the nurturing of our relationship with God. We often assume there will be more time later, but Jesus urges us not to take that time for granted. One simple way to stay spiritually prepared is to use the few moments before Mass to quiet your heart, ask God to open you to his Word, and prepare yourself to receive Christ in the Eucharist. The invitation today is clear and urgent: do not delay preparing for Christ's coming!

Catholic Questions Answered

Why do Catholics believe in Purgatory?

Catholics believe in Purgatory because God's mercy prepares His children to enter fully into the holiness of heaven. Purgatory is not a second chance after death, nor is it a place of punishment like hell. It is a final purification for those who die in friendship with God but still need to be purified from the effects of sin before seeing Him face to face.

The Bible teaches that nothing unholy can enter the presence of God (Rev 21:27). Yet Scripture also speaks of people being saved while experiencing purification. Saint Paul writes that a person's work may be tested by fire and that he himself may be saved "but only as through fire" (1 Cor 3:15). The Church understands this as a biblical foundation for the belief in purification after death.

The teaching on Purgatory is also connected to the reality that sin has consequences. Even when God forgives our sins, the wounds and attachments caused by sin may require healing. God's purification restores us completely so that we can love Him with an undivided heart.

Catholics pray for the dead because we believe that the members of Christ's Body remain united even after death. Our prayers express love and charity toward those who are being purified and entrust them to God's infinite mercy. Purgatory is ultimately a sign of God's love. It shows that God desires not only to forgive us but to transform us completely so that we may share forever in the joy of heaven.

8 DE NOVIEMBRE
TRIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El Evangelio de hoy nos recuerda que podemos perder oportunidades cuando descuidamos lo que más importa. Las vírgenes necias no quedaron excluidas por ser malas, sino porque no estaban preparadas cuando llegó el momento del encuentro. Esto representa un desafío para todos nosotros. Las exigencias y presiones de la vida cotidiana fácilmente absorben nuestra atención y nos dejan poco tiempo para la oración, la reflexión y el fortalecimiento de nuestra relación con Dios. A menudo suponemos que tendremos más tiempo después, pero Jesús nos exhorta a no darlo por sentado. Una manera sencilla de mantenernos espiritualmente preparados es aprovechar los momentos antes de la Misa para aquietar el corazón, pedirle a Dios que nos abra a su Palabra y prepararnos para recibir a Cristo en la Eucaristía. La invitación de hoy es clara y urgente: ¡no dejemos para mañana la preparación para la venida de Cristo!

Preguntas Católicas Respondidas

¿Por qué los católicos creen en el Purgatorio?

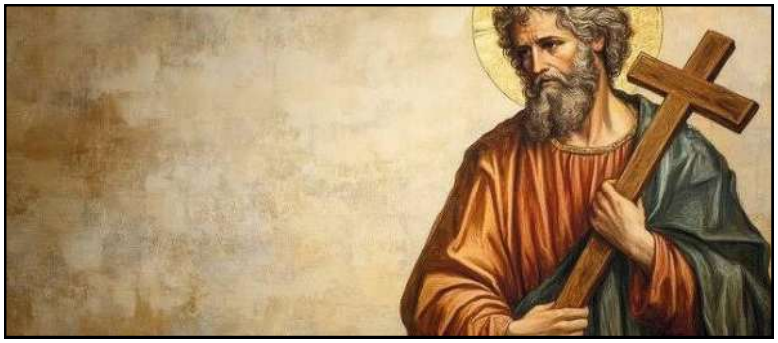

Los católicos creemos en el Purgatorio porque confiamos en que la misericordia de Dios prepara a sus hijos para entrar plenamente en la santidad del cielo. El Purgatorio no es una segunda oportunidad después de la muerte ni un lugar de castigo como el infierno. Es una purificación final para aquellos que mueren en amistad con Dios, pero que todavía necesitan ser purificados de las consecuencias del pecado antes de contemplarlo cara a cara.

La Biblia enseña que nada impuro puede entrar en la presencia de Dios (Ap 21,27). Al mismo tiempo, la Sagrada Escritura habla de una salvación que incluye una purificación. San Pablo dice que la obra de cada persona será probada por el fuego y que algunos serán salvados «como quien pasa por el fuego» (1 Co 3,15). La Iglesia reconoce en este pasaje un fundamento bíblico para la purificación después de la muerte.

La enseñanza del Purgatorio también está relacionada con la realidad de que el pecado deja consecuencias. Aunque Dios perdona nuestros pecados, las heridas y los apegos desordenados que quedan necesitan ser sanados. Dios nos purifica para que podamos amarlo con un corazón completamente libre.

Los católicos rezamos por los difuntos porque creemos que la unión del Cuerpo de Cristo continúa después de la muerte. Nuestras oraciones expresan amor hacia quienes están siendo purificados y los confiamos a la infinita misericordia de Dios. El Purgatorio es, en definitiva, una manifestación del amor de Dios. Nos recuerda que Él no solamente quiere perdonarnos, sino transformarnos completamente para compartir con nosotros la alegría eterna del cielo.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl around the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

HURRICANE SEASON PRAYER

God, our Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Keep us safe from the danger of hurricanes, floods, earthquakes, natural disasters and all acts of terrorism. May we be secure in your protection and always feel the presence of your love as you turn our fears into praise of your goodness. Bless our families and bring peace to all nations. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

ORACIÓN A SAN MIGUEL ARCÁNGEL

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Reprímele Dios, pedimos suplicantes, y tú, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, arroja al infierno con el divino poder, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

ORACIÓN EN TEMPORADA DE HURACANES

Padre, todos los elementos de la naturaleza obedecen a tu mandato. Líbranos de los peligros de huracanes, inundaciones, terremotos, desastres naturales y de todos los actos de terrorismo. Que nos sintamos seguros en tu protección y que siempre sintamos la presencia de tu amor. Cambia nuestros miedos en alabanzas a tu bondad. Bendice a nuestras familias y trae la paz a todas las naciones. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.
