NOVEMBER 15
THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God has blessed each of us with unique gifts and talents. What matters is not how many gifts we have received, but how faithfully and generously we use them. God never asks more of us than what he has entrusted to us. Today's parable reminds us that every talent, every virtue, and every saintly quality is a gift from God, meant not to be hidden away but to be placed at the service of God and others. Each of us has something valuable to offer. Take a moment to humbly and honestly reflect on the gifts he has given you. Thank God for them and ask for the grace to share them generously. Then pray for the confidence and courage to use them well, trusting that God can transform even the smallest offering we make, when it is made with love.

The Saints of the Week

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary (July 7, 1207 – November 17, 1231) was a Hungarian princess known for her extraordinary charity, humility, and love for the poor. Married to Louis IV of Thuringia, she devoted her life to caring for the sick and needy, establishing hospitals and distributing food to those suffering from poverty. After her husband's death, she embraced a life of poverty and service, joining the Third Order of St. Francis. Despite her royal background, she chose a life of simplicity and generosity, seeing Christ in the poor and suffering. She was canonized in 1235 by Pope Gregory IX and is the patron saint of charities, hospitals, and bakers.

Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne (August 29, 1769 – November 18, 1852) was a French religious sister and missionary who dedicated her life to spreading the Gospel in the United States. A member of the Society of the Sacred Heart, she arrived in Louisiana in 1818 and established schools for girls and Native American children. Despite hardships, language barriers, and difficult living conditions, she remained steadfast in her missionary vocation. Known as the "Woman Who Prays Always," she spent her final years among the Potawatomi people, serving them with humility and devotion. She was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 1988.

80TH From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last weekend, I had the opportunity to travel to Boston, my home diocese, to participate in a retreat and, most importantly, to meet with His Eminence Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley, OFM Cap., regarding our upcoming 80th Anniversary Gala Dinner on Sunday, December 13, at 5:00 pm.

It was a wonderful opportunity to spend some time with the Cardinal, discuss the preparations for this special celebration, and review some of the logistical arrangements for his visit to St. Croix. We also spoke about his engagement with our parish and the various activities planned for that memorable day.

Cardinal Seán is very excited about coming to St. Joseph and celebrating this important milestone with us. He will preside at the 10:00 am whole Parish Bilingual Mass on Sunday, December 13, and later join us for our Anniversary Gala Dinner, where he will be our keynote speaker. His presence will make this celebration even more meaningful as we give thanks to God for 80 years of faith, prayer, service, and community at Saint Joseph.

During our conversation, the Cardinal asked me to extend his warm greetings, prayers, and blessings to all of you. He looks forward to meeting you, celebrating the Eucharist with you, and sharing this special occasion with our parish family.

As we continue preparing for this historic celebration, let us keep Cardinal Seán in our prayers and remember that this anniversary is not simply about looking back at our history, but also about renewing our commitment to the mission entrusted to us by Christ.

Thank you for your continued love, generosity, and dedication to Saint Joseph Parish.

Fr. Andrea

Catholic Questions Answered

Why do Catholics believe in Heaven?

Catholics believe in Heaven because Jesus Christ revealed that eternal life with God is the ultimate destiny of those who love Him and remain faithful. Heaven is not simply a beautiful place or a reward; it is the fullness of communion with the Holy Trinity, where we will see God face to face and share in His eternal joy.

Jesus repeatedly spoke about Heaven and promised His disciples that He was preparing a place for them: "In my Father's house there are many dwelling places… I am going to prepare a place for you" (Jn 14:2–3). After His Resurrection, Christ opened the way to eternal life and showed that death does not have the final word.

The Church teaches that Heaven is the fulfillment of the deepest desires of the human heart. Every human person longs for perfect happiness, love, and peace, and this longing can only be completely satisfied in God. In Heaven, the blessed experience the beatific vision, the direct and eternal contemplation of God.

Heaven is not something we earn by our own strength. It is a gift of God's grace, received through faith, hope, and charity. Our earthly life is a journey of preparation in which we are called to love God and our neighbor.

The hope of Heaven gives Christians strength during suffering and reminds us that our true home is with God. As Saint Paul writes, "What no eye has seen, and no ear has heard… God has prepared for those who love Him" (1 Cor 2:9).

Desde la pluma del parroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

El pasado fin de semana tuve la oportunidad de viajar a Boston, mi diócesis de origen, para participar en un retiro y reunirme con Su Eminencia el Cardenal Seán Patrick O'Malley, OFM Cap., con motivo de nuestra próxima Cena de Gala por el 80.º aniversario de nuestra parroquia, el domingo 13 de diciembre, a las 5:00 pm.

Fue un encuentro muy agradable en el que conversamos sobre los preparativos, algunos detalles logísticos y su participación durante esta celebración tan especial. El Cardenal está muy entusiasmado con su próxima visita a Santa Cruz. Presidirá la Santa Misa bilingue a las 10:00 am y, posteriormente, nos acompañará en la Cena de Gala, donde será nuestro orador principal.

El Cardenal les envía sus más cordiales saludos, oraciones y bendiciones. Espera con mucha alegría encontrarse con todos ustedes y compartir este momento tan significativo en la historia de nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Sigamos preparándonos con gratitud y alegría para celebrar juntos estos 80 años de fe, servicio y comunidad.

¡San José, ruega por nosotros!

P. Andrea

15 DE NOVIEMBRE
TRIGÉSIMO TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Dios nos ha bendecido a cada uno de nosotros con dones y talentos únicos. Lo importante no es cuántos dones hemos recibido, sino con cuánta fidelidad y generosidad los ponemos en práctica. Dios nunca nos pide más de lo que nos ha confiado. La parábola de hoy nos recuerda que cada talento, cada virtud y cada cualidad que nos acerca a la santidad es un regalo de Dios, destinado no a permanecer escondido, sino a ponerse al servicio de Dios y de los demás.
Cada uno de nosotros tiene algo valioso que ofrecer. Dedique un momento a reflexionar con humildad y sinceridad sobre los dones que Dios le ha concedido. Dele gracias por ellos y pídale la gracia de compartirlos generosamente. Luego, ore para recibir la confianza y el valor necesarios para utilizarlos bien, confiando en que Dios puede transformar incluso la más pequeña ofrenda que le presentamos cuando la hacemos con amor.

Preguntas Católicas Respondidas

¿Por qué los católicos creen en el cielo?

Los católicos creemos en el cielo porque Jesucristo reveló que la vida eterna con Dios es el destino final de quienes lo aman y permanecen fieles a Él. El cielo no es simplemente un lugar hermoso ni solamente una recompensa; es la plenitud de la comunión con la Santísima Trinidad, donde contemplaremos a Dios cara a cara y participaremos de su alegría eterna.

Jesús habló muchas veces sobre el cielo y prometió a sus discípulos que Él prepararía un lugar para ellos: «En la casa de mi Padre hay muchas moradas… voy a prepararles un lugar» (Jn 14,2–3). Con su Resurrección, Cristo abrió para nosotros el camino hacia la vida eterna y mostró que la muerte no tiene la última palabra.

La Iglesia enseña que el cielo es la respuesta al deseo más profundo del corazón humano. Toda persona busca una felicidad perfecta, un amor que no termine y una paz completa; y ese deseo solo puede cumplirse plenamente en Dios. En el cielo, los santos participan de la visión beatífica, contemplando a Dios eternamente.

El cielo no es algo que conseguimos únicamente por nuestros propios esfuerzos. Es un don de la gracia de Dios que recibimos viviendo en fe, esperanza y caridad. Nuestra vida terrena es un camino de preparación en el que aprendemos a amar a Dios y al prójimo.

La esperanza del cielo nos fortalece en las dificultades y nos recuerda que nuestra verdadera patria está en Dios. Como dice San Pablo: «Lo que ni el ojo vio, ni el oído oyó… Dios lo ha preparado para los que lo aman» (1 Co 2,9).

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

HURRICANE SEASON PRAYER

God, our loving Father, You are the Lord of all creation. Protect our islands and our people from hurricanes and all natural disasters. Keep us safe under Your loving care, strengthen our faith, calm our fears, and guide us through every storm. May we always trust in Your protection and give You praise for Your goodness. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORACIÓN A SAN MIGUEL ARCÁNGEL

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Reprímele Dios, pedimos suplicantes, y tú, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, arroja al infierno con el divino poder, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Que siempre confiemos en Tu protección y te alabemos por Tu bondad. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.
