The Saints of the Week

St. Andrew the Apostle (c. 5 BC – c. AD 60–70) was one of the twelve Apostles of Jesus Christ and the brother of St. Peter. Originally a disciple of John the Baptist, he was among the first to follow Jesus, earning the title Protokletos, meaning "the First-Called." After encountering Christ, Andrew brought his brother Peter to meet Him. Throughout his ministry, he preached the Gospel in various regions, traditionally including Greece and Asia Minor. According to tradition, he was martyred by crucifixion at Patras, Greece, on an X-shaped cross, now known as St. Andrew's Cross. He is the patron saint of Scotland, Russia, and fishermen.

St. Francis Xavier (1506–1552) was a Spanish Jesuit missionary and one of the founding members of the Society of Jesus, alongside St. Ignatius of Loyola. Driven by an extraordinary zeal for evangelization, he traveled extensively throughout India, Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Indonesia, and Japan, bringing the Gospel to countless people. He baptized thousands and established Christian communities, often learning local languages to communicate the faith. His missionary journeys eventually brought him to the shores of China, where he died on the island of Shangchuan while awaiting entry into the mainland. Known as the "Apostle of the Indies," he was canonized in 1622 and is the patron saint of missions.

NOVEMBER 29
FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Jesus sets the tone for Advent with an urgent call: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." These words are not meant to frighten us but to awaken us. The question is not whether Christ will come, but whether we will be ready to stand before him. The Church gives us Advent as a sacred season of waiting, watching, and preparing for the Lord. Yet it is easy to let the demands of Christmas preparations drown out the deeper work Advent invites us to do. This holy season challenges us to make room for Christ each day with prayer, reflection, and acts of faith. By doing so, our hearts can become more attentive to the Lord who is already near. May this Advent find us watchful, alert, and ready to welcome him when he comes.

From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are already in the beautiful season of Advent! And what better way to begin than by making room for the Lord in our hearts? Today, at 3:00 pm, we will have a Parish Penance Celebration. I strongly encourage everyone to take advantage of this opportunity to receive God's mercy and grace. Over the past three Sundays, the Gospel has reminded us that many of our sins are sins of omission: the good we fail to do with the gifts and blessings the Lord has entrusted to us. Let us take this opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, begin again, and prepare the way of the Lord!

A special reminder: On Sunday, December 13, there will be no Mass at the usual times. Instead, our entire parish will gather for one Solemn Mass at 10:00 am, presided over by Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley and concelebrated by Bishop Jerome and other priests. It will be a wonderful celebration! Please come early to find a good seat. It will also be a beautiful opportunity to meet fellow parishioners from our other Sunday Masses and celebrate together as one parish family.

May this Advent be a time of renewal, reconciliation, and joyful expectation as we prepare our hearts for the coming of the Lord!

Saint Joseph, pray for us!

Fr. Andrea

Catholic Questions Answered

Why do Catholics believe in grace?

Catholics believe in grace because we recognize that our relationship with God is not something we can achieve by our own strength. Grace is the free and undeserved gift of God that allows us to know Him, love Him, and share in His divine life. Everything we have received in our salvation comes from God's loving initiative.

The Bible teaches that we are saved by grace through faith, not because we can earn God's love through our own efforts (Eph 2:8–9). God loved us first and sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to redeem us from sin and restore our relationship with Him (1 Jn 4:19).

Through Baptism, we receive sanctifying grace, which makes us children of God and sharers in His divine life. Throughout our Christian journey, God continues to give us grace through prayer, the sacraments, and the works of charity. The sacraments are special channels through which Christ communicates His saving grace to His people.

Grace does not eliminate our freedom or make our efforts unnecessary. Instead, God's grace heals and strengthens our human nature so that we can freely cooperate with Him. As Saint Paul wrote, "By the grace of God I am what I am" (1 Cor 15:10).

The Christian life is therefore a response to grace. We do not earn God's love; we receive it and allow it to transform us. Grace enables us to become holy, overcome sin, and live as true disciples of Christ.

Desde la pluma del parroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

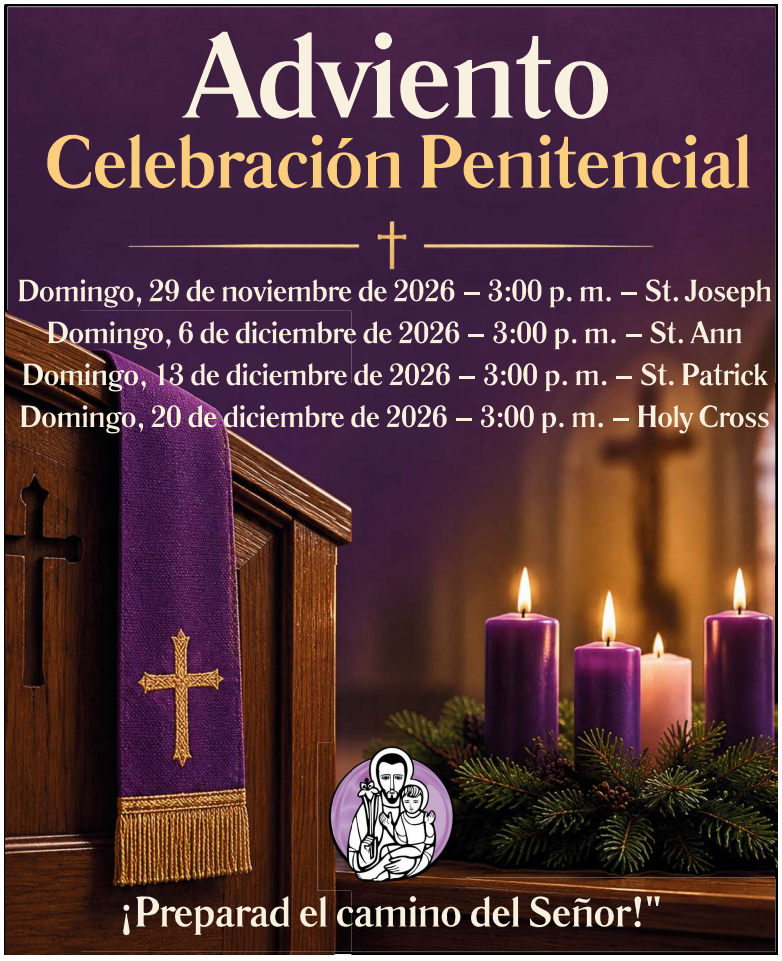

¡Ya estamos en el hermoso tiempo de Adviento! ¿Y qué mejor manera de comenzar que haciendo espacio para el Señor en nuestros corazones? Hoy, a las 3:00 pm, tendremos una Celebración Penitencial Parroquial. Los animo sinceramente a aprovechar esta oportunidad para recibir la misericordia y la gracia de Dios. Durante los últimos tres domingos, el Evangelio nos ha recordado que muchos de nuestros pecados son pecados de omisión: el bien que dejamos de hacer con los dones y bendiciones que el Señor nos ha confiado. Aprovechemos esta oportunidad para acercarnos al Sacramento de la Reconciliación, comenzar de nuevo y preparar el camino del Señor.

Un recordatorio especial: El domingo 13 de diciembre no tendremos Misas en los horarios habituales. En su lugar, toda nuestra comunidad parroquial se reunirá para celebrar una Solemne Misa Parroquial a las 10:00 a.m., presidida por el Cardenal Seán Patrick O'Malley y concelebrada por el Obispo Jerome y otros sacerdotes. ¡Será una celebración verdaderamente especial! Les recomendamos llegar temprano para conseguir un buen lugar. También será una hermosa oportunidad para conocer a otros feligreses que asisten a las distintas Misas dominicales y celebrar juntos como una sola familia parroquial.

¡Que este Adviento sea un tiempo de renovación, reconciliación y gozosa esperanza, mientras preparamos nuestros corazones para la venida del Señor!

¡San José, ruega por nosotro

29 DE NOVIEMBRE
PRIMER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

Jesús marca el tono del Adviento con una llamada urgente: «¡Estén atentos! ¡Vigilen! Porque no saben cuándo llegará el momento». Estas palabras no pretenden atemorizarnos, sino despertarnos. La cuestión no es si Cristo vendrá, sino si estaremos preparados para presentarnos ante Él. La Iglesia nos ofrece el Adviento como un tiempo sagrado de espera, vigilancia y preparación para la venida del Señor. Sin embargo, es fácil dejar que las preocupaciones y los preparativos de la Navidad nos distraigan del verdadero trabajo espiritual al que este tiempo nos invita. Este tiempo santo nos anima a hacer espacio para Cristo cada día, mediante la oración, la reflexión y las obras de fe. Así, nuestros corazones estarán más atentos al Señor, que ya está cerca. Que este Adviento nos encuentre vigilantes, despiertos y preparados para recibirlo cuando venga.

Preguntas Católicas Respondidas

¿Por qué los católicos creen en la gracia?

Los católicos creemos en la gracia porque reconocemos que nuestra relación con Dios no es algo que podamos alcanzar solamente con nuestras propias fuerzas. La gracia es el don gratuito e inmerecido que Dios nos concede para conocerlo, amarlo y participar de su misma vida divina. Todo lo que recibimos para nuestra salvación nace de la iniciativa amorosa de Dios.

La Biblia enseña que somos salvados por la gracia mediante la fe, y no porque podamos ganar el amor de Dios con nuestros propios esfuerzos (Ef 2,8–9). Dios nos amó primero y envió a su Hijo Jesucristo para liberarnos del pecado y restaurar nuestra amistad con Él (1 Jn 4,19).

Por medio del Bautismo recibimos la gracia santificante, que nos convierte en hijos de Dios y nos hace partícipes de su vida divina. Durante nuestro camino cristiano, Dios continúa fortaleciéndonos con su gracia a través de la oración, los sacramentos y las obras de caridad. Los sacramentos son medios especiales por los cuales Cristo comunica su gracia salvadora.

La gracia no elimina nuestra libertad ni hace innecesario nuestro esfuerzo. Al contrario, la gracia sana y fortalece nuestra naturaleza humana para que podamos colaborar libremente con Dios. Como escribió San Pablo: «Por la gracia de Dios soy lo que soy» (1 Co 15,10). La vida cristiana es una respuesta al amor recibido. No ganamos el amor de Dios; lo recibimos y permitimos que transforme nuestro corazón. La gracia nos capacita para crecer en santidad, vencer el pecado y vivir como verdaderos discípulos de Cristo.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

HURRICANE SEASON PRAYER

God, our loving Father, You are the Lord of all creation. Protect our islands and our people from hurricanes and all natural disasters. Keep us safe under Your loving care, strengthen our faith, calm our fears, and guide us through every storm. May we always trust in Your protection and give You praise for Your goodness. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORACIÓN A SAN MIGUEL ARCÁNGEL

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Reprímele Dios, pedimos suplicantes, y tú, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, arroja al infierno con el divino poder, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

ORACIÓN EN TEMPORADA DE HURACANES

Dios, Padre amoroso, Tú eres el Señor de toda la creación. Protege nuestras islas y a nuestro pueblo de los huracanes y de todos los desastres naturales. Mantennos seguros bajo Tu amoroso cuidado, fortalece nuestra fe, calma nuestros temores y guíanos en medio de cada tormenta.
Que siempre confiemos en Tu protección y te alabemos por Tu bondad. Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.
